General conditions

The award of “Master scholarship of Ile de France” depends on acceptance of the following conditions entirely:

- undertake to follow the complete course in the same institute to which the student has been selected;
- stay in the individual room reserved and financed by the Region of Ile de France at the premises of “the Cite Universitaire International de Paris” (CUIP) through out his/her course at Ile de France;
- Prioritorily carry out the eventual training or research linked with his/her course in the Ile de France. All period spent outside the Region of Ile de France, apart from university holidays, will give rise to the reduction in proportion to the amount of scholarship;
- come to Ile de France non-accompanied.

Amount

The Regional financial support amounts to 10, 500 euros for a year of study (demands 9 consecutive months of minimum duration) directly paid by the “Cite Universitaire International de Paris” (CUIP) after deducting the accommodation allowances. As an indicative, a student pursuing a 9 months course will receive a monthly allowance of around 800 euros. The Region anticipates no other financial or additional materials.

Precisions that the scholarship does not permit:

- the settlement of the total enrolment fee of his/her host institute by the candidate;
- the charges connected to the administrative formalities of admission or residence in France;
- the charges of social security or diverse insurances coverage in France;
- the travelling expenses from the country of origin to Ile de France.
